CLOSING	202

PUB NITE: Easily one of the greatest perks of being a senior is the opportunity to go out every Thursday for the class-sponsored pub nite! It was a chance to enjoy time out with friends and congregate in this friendly, time-honored tradition.

RIGHT: Paul Lograno, Jenny Davis and John Kane enjoy the intimacy of parents plaza.
BELOW: checking out the latest in the "Bergwear" line.

THE CLASS

OF 1992!

A SIGN OF...

THIS FALL, Muhlenberg welcomed its fourth sorority, Phi Mu. Within only a year, the group chose its founding sisters, admitted several pledges, and was extremely competitive in its first ever Greek Week competition!

OPP. LEFT: the successful completion of a chem experiment brings looks of relief.

OPP. RIGHT: Jen Lyle joins Race Roth as they Race to class.

CHANGING SEASONS

CELEBRATE! there were many things on campus to celebrate during 1992-93: our great sports teams, our growing campus, and the great tradition of homecoming. Held in late October, this year's event saw beautiful fall weather and the return of friends from years past.

ABOVE: Some of the many colorful floats go by in the Homecoming parade: Chris, Stephanie, Rocco and Paul aboard the Student Council float, along with the beautiful AXO offering in the parade.

BELOW: Some of the nervous candidates for Homecoming King and Queen.

A SIGN OF...

...HOMECOMING '92!

More scenes from
Homecoming:
BELOW: John Kane shares
a moment with last year's king and queen, Jenny Chu and Joe Mileto.
RIGHT: AXO searches for emergency assistance with their Mule creation.
FAR RIGHT: President
Messerli and his wife, Vi, participate in their last Muhlenberg Homecoming parade.

THE 1992 CIARLA...

STOP! This fall, President Messerli announced his retirement, effective July, 1992. A call went out to find his successor, and, in August '92, Mr. Arthur Taylor took over as president of the college!

TOP: Amy and Holly cheer on the Delta Zeta delegation.

ABOVE: Torey and Dawn lend support to AXO.

TIME OUT! Outside of class, there seem to be two things that always succeed in bringing Muhlenberg students together — a good time and free stuff!

 Generals Quarters.

BELOW: Joanne Sahayda checks the results of a chem experiment.

A SIGN OF...

ABOVE: a sure sign of an exam — the dreaded little yellow examination leaflets.

...LEARNING & GROWING

OPPOSITE PAGE: Muhlenberg celebrated the completion of renovations in the Ettinger and Hass buildings this past fall. Dave Haight led the academic procession and Dr. Baldrige gave an anecdote concerning the long histories of the two buildings.
BELOW: Former Philadelphia mayor W. Wilson Goode visited the school in February and gave lectures in a number of classes.

A SIGN OF...

MANY CHANGES came to Muhlenberg during the past four years. One major change has been the implementation of a campus-wide recycling effort. This drive was headed by the new environmental group, ENACT, and its founder, Radhika Atit.

...COMING CHANGE

FRIENDSHIPS: that's what life on campus is all about. Whether you find your best friends in a fraternity or sorority, in a club, or just hanging out, we all leave Muhlenberg with a plethora of good friends.

RIGHT and OPPOSITE BELOW: Some of the many close friendships fostered at school: Jeff and Dianna, Brendan and Brendan.

A SIGN OF...

FAR LEFT: Attention Muhlenberg Shoppers! Also, dreams of graduation as classes wear on.

...LASTING FRIENDSHIPS!

TOP: Andrea opts for the quiet of the union lobby.

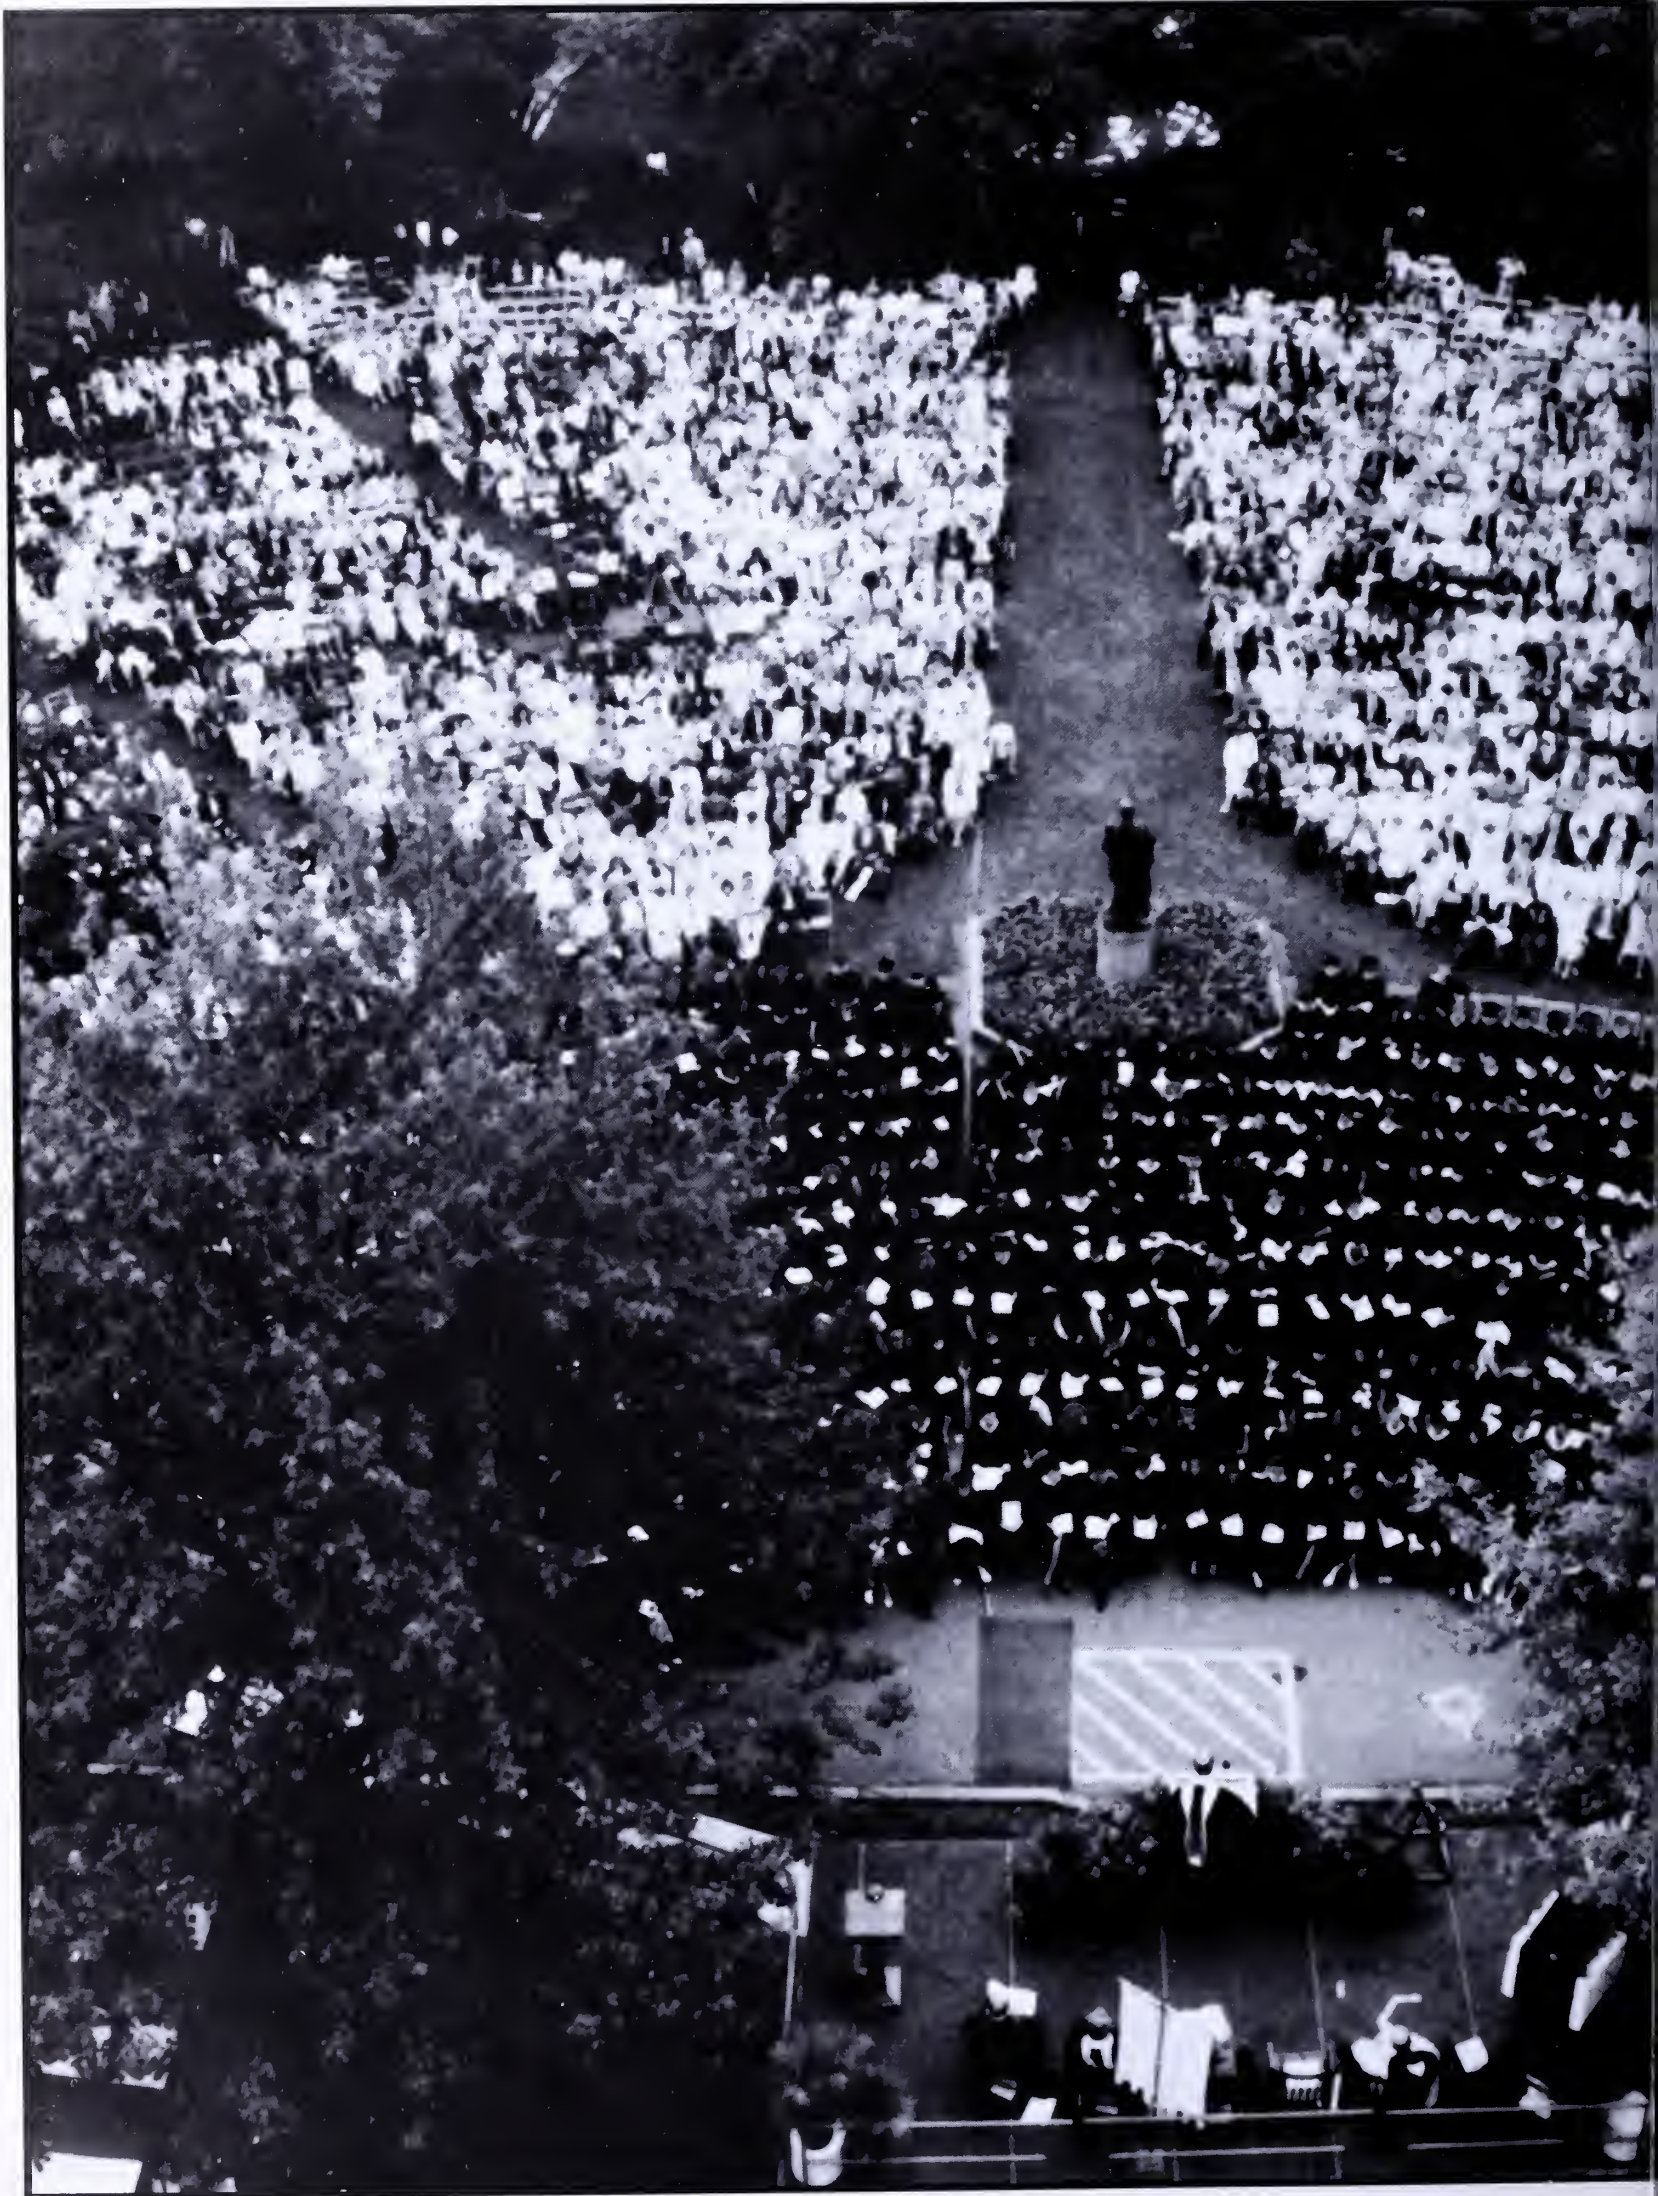

A SIGN OF...
